

Terms & Conditions

Entry into the competition will be deemed as acceptance of all other below terms and conditions.

This is an island wide competition open to all Sri Lankan undergraduate and post graduate level students. Applicants must participate in one of the aforementioned categories. Please make sure to fill in the form under the correct category.

Applicants may participate as a group (maximum 3 individuals to represent the group at community events/workshops) or as an individual.

The application can be filled out only in English, (Please note: Main mode of communication in this program is English.)

A group/individual can only submit one application form per innovation / idea.

Once the form has been submitted you are not able to edit and resubmit the form or review.

Applicant selection is at the sole discretion of the organizers and have the right to disqualify any applicant for failing to meet eligibility requirement, non-disclosed information, non-compliance to terms and conditions or intellectual property rights infringement, etc.

The information given on the application form will be kept confidential and only circulated among the judging panel and organizing teams. See data protection policy here.

The applicant retains full ownership of their Intellectual Property (IP) at all stages of the competition.

For Universities

Students can be accompanied by a lecturer if desired.

It is the sole responsibility of the applicant to obtain necessary permission from the University administration before entering the competition.

All Applicants further represent, warrant, and confirm to the organizers that the information provided in their respective applications is accurate and will not, to the best of their knowledge:

- i. Infringe any third party's copyright, trademark, patent or other proprietary rights or rights of publicity or privacy.
- ii. Violate any Applicable Law (including without limitation those governing export control, consumer protection, unfair competition, anti - discrimination or false advertising), or
- iii. Be libellous, threatening, or harassing.
- iv.